WHERE WOULD YOU CHOOSE TO GIVE?

- Samantha, a single mom fleeing domestic violence, in a shelter with her toddler, trying to rebuild her life.
- Malik, a 9-year-old who struggles to concentrate in school because he hasn't eaten since lunch the day before.
- Thomas, a veteran living on the street, facing mental health challenges and disconnected from benefits.
- Ken, 84, widower and living alone, receiving meals through a home-delivered nutrition program.
- Layton, a young boy whose father is incarcerated, finding confidence through a youth mentorship program.
- Alexander, a kindergartner who never attended preschool and is behind in social and academic skills.
- Jesse, a disabled adult navigating multiple service systems without a support person.
- Carlos, a factory worker recently laid off, unsure how to pay rent or apply for assistance to keep his family housed.
- Emma, a new mother experiencing postpartum depression, seeking mental health services she can afford.
- Phylisha, a single hardworking mom trying to skill up so that she no longer has to rely on community programs because she simply can't afford the cost of living on her own.
